

KIDS' ARTISTIC REVIEW

APRIL 15-17, 2011

We have competed at KAR in the past and we have been competitive. Last year, we were acknowledged as the Top Primary Studio. This year was no different. Despite the addition of some very talented studios, PHD did very well again. Out of our 50 competition dances, 36 of them placed in the Overalls. PHD earned 17 Category Winners, 11 All-Star Dance Awards, and 7 special acknowledgements: Secondary Scholarship, Most Entertaining, Best Costume, Primary Facebook Video Award, and 3 Judges' Awards. In addition, KAR's backstage directors awarded the PROP CREW with an "Overall Top Score" pin for being the best backstage crew. To top it off, PHD was awarded acknowledged as the "Top Secondary Studio Award!" Rumor has it, this made Dawn Boven very happy (you will have to ask her about it).

Question: Which studio would you consider the top studio (primary)?

Studio 1: The studio with a total of 16 primary dances. Out of the 16 dances, 9 of them earned a Top First award, with 2 Category Winners and 1 dance in the Overalls. Of the 9 Top First awards, 4 were solos, 4 were duet/trios, and 1 was a small group.

Studio 2: The studio with a total of 9 primary dances. Out of the 9 dances, 8 of them earned a Top First award, with 3 Category Winners and 7 in the Overalls. Of the 8 top First, 1 was a solo, 3 were duet/trios, 2 were small groups, and 1 was a line. In addition, this studio was awarded Best Costume, Most Entertaining, and selected as the Primary Facebook Video of the Week.

Answer: Studio 1. PHD is Studio 2. I am not bitter... I'm just sayin'.

The Adjudication Awards for KAR are Elite Top First, Top First, First, and High Second. Primary dances were not able to earn a Elite Top First. A Top First was the highest award they could earn. Starting with the secondary dances, they could earn an Elite Top First.
