

CELEBRATION TALENT COMPETITION

MARCH 18-20, 2011

A celebration is a time to celebrate. Unfortunately, the Celebration Talent Competition provided PHD with its toughest set of judges in recent memory. During the entire competition, the judges only awarded a few dances with Platinum (highest award). But, it's not like PHD went without notice. You will see that PHD was well represented when the awards were handed out.

Over the weekend, PHD was able to capture 29 High Gold awards. PHD had 13 dances that placed in the Overalls, with "Shrek's In Love," "Itty Bitties," "Peter Pan," and "Imagine" placing 1st Overall. PHD earned awards for Best Costume (Fireflies and Shrek's In Love), Choreography (Crayola and Yellow), Show Stopper (Peter Pan and Universal Child), Performance (Will You Be My Girl?), and a Judge's Award (To Oz).

Special recognition goes to Alex Uridge for Most Photogenic and Jessica Myers for earning an All-Star Award (and invitation to the Nationals). In addition, congratulations to the PHD Prop Crew for getting a Standing Ovation from the judges and acknowledgement when they gave "To Oz" a Judge's Award.

The Adjudication Awards for Celebration are Platinum (highest award), High Gold, Gold, High Silver, and Silver.
